The company is a public company.

1.2 Powers of the company
1.2.1 Subject to Clauses 1.3.2 and 2.1.1 (c) below, the company has the powers and capacity of an individual and is not subject to any restrictive conditions or to any prohibitions regarding the amendment of the provisions of this Memorandum of Incorporation other than those contained in the Act save that the company shall not have the power to claim a lien on any of its securities and subject to Clause 2.3(2) below. If the relevant Listings Requirement that relates to this clause 1.2.1 were to be removed or modified, the provision in question shall no longer apply if the Listings Requirement has been removed or shall apply as modified by the Listings Requirements.

1.2.3 No special resolution may be put to holders to ratify any action by the company or the directors that is inconsistent with any limit, restriction or qualification regarding the purposes, powers or activities of the company, or the authority of the directors to perform an act on behalf of the company, if that action was contrary to the Listings Requirements unless otherwise agreed with the JSE.

1.2.4 Notwithstanding the omission from this Memorandum of Incorporation of any provision to that effect, the company may, subject to any limitation in this Memorandum of Incorporation, do anything which the Act empowers a company to do if so authorised by its Memorandum of Incorporation.

1.3 Memorandum of Incorporation

1.3.1 Subject to the Act and Clauses 1.3.2 and 2.1.1(c) below, this Memorandum of Incorporation shall only be amended by an order of court or a special resolution of the holders of the company. Such notice shall also be announced through the official news service of the JSE. If the relevant Listings Requirement that relates to this clause 4.3.4 were to be removed or modified, the provision in question shall no longer apply if the Listings Requirement has been removed or shall apply as modified by the Listings Requirements.

4.3.5 All notices may, with respect to any registered shares to which persons are jointly entitled, be given to whichever of such persons is named first on the register and notice so given shall be sufficient notice to all the holders of such shares.

4.3.6 Any notice or document given or served by the company upon any shareholder in pursuance of this Memorandum of Incorporation shall, notwithstanding that such shareholder was then deceased, and whether or not the company has notice of his decease, be deemed to have been duly served in respect of any registered shares, whether held solely or jointly with other persons by such shareholder, until some other person is registered in his stead and such service shall, for all purposes under this Memorandum of Incorporation, be deemed a sufficient service of such notice or document on his or her heirs, executors or administrators, and all persons (if any) jointly interested with him or her in any such shares.

4.3.7 Every person who, by operation of law, transfer or by any other means whatsoever shall become entitled to any share, shall be bound by every notice in respect of such share which, previously to his name and address being entered in the register, shall have been given to the person from whom he derives his title to such share.

4.4 QUORUM FOR SHAREHOLDERS’ MEETINGS

4.4.1 The quorum requirement for a shareholders’ meeting to begin is sufficient persons present (and no less than three persons) at the meeting (which includes being present in person or by proxy) to exercise, in aggregate, at least 25% of all of the voting rights that are entitled to be exercised in respect of at least one matter to be decided at the meeting, provided that there shall not be a quorum unless there are at least three persons so present at such meeting. If the relevant Listings Requirement that relates to this clause 4.4.1 were to be removed or modified, the provision in question shall no longer apply if the Listings Requirement has been removed or shall apply as modified by the Listings Requirements.

4.4.2 If a resolution is proposed to meet the Listings Requirements, notwithstanding that the holders of securities not listed on the JSE shall be entitled to be counted in the quorum as a matter of law, they shall not be taken into account for the purposes of determining whether or not the quorum requirements of the JSE have been attained.

4.4.3 Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in the Act, once a quorum for the meeting has been established, all the shareholders forming the quorum must be present in respect of every matter that is considered at the meeting.

4.4.4 A shareholder of the company which is a juristic person as defined in the Act and is present at a shareholders’ meeting by an authorised representative shall be deemed to be present at that meeting.

4.4.5 The time periods contained in the Act regarding the postponement of a shareholders’ meeting or the consideration of a particular matter at a shareholders’ meeting, as a result of the quorum requirements not having been met will apply to the company without variation.
4.4.6 Subject to any requirements of the JSE, the quorum at any postponed meeting shall be the shareholder or shareholders present thereat or by proxy, who may transact the business for which the meeting was called.

4.5 ADJOURNMENT OF SHAREHOLDERS’ MEETINGS
4.5.1 The chairman of a shareholders’ meeting may adjourn the meeting from time to time and from place to place. Notice of any such adjournment will be announced on the Stock Exchange News Service.

4.5.2 A shareholders’ meeting may be adjourned. Such adjournment may be either to a fixed time and place or until further notice (in which latter case a further notice shall be delivered to holders), as determined at the shareholders meeting.

4.5.3 Subject to any requirements of the JSE, the quorum at any adjourned meeting shall be the shareholders present thereat personally or by proxy, who may transact the business for which the meeting was called.

4.5.4 No business shall be transacted at any adjourned shareholders’ meeting of the company other than business left unfinished at the meeting from which the adjournment took place.

4.6 VOTES OF SHAREHOLDERS
4.6.1 At any shareholders meeting a resolution put to the vote shall be decided on a show of hands, unless before or on the declaration of the result of the show of hands a poll shall be demanded by –

- not less than 5 (five) persons having the right to vote on that matter; or

- a person/s entitled to exercise not less than 1/10th (one tenth) of the total voting rights entitled to vote on that matter; or

- the chairperson,

and, unless a poll is so demanded, a declaration by the chairperson that a resolution has, on a show of hands been carried, or carried unanimously, or by a particular majority, or lost, and an entry to that effect in the minute book of the company, shall be conclusive evidence of the fact, without proof of the number or proportion of the votes recorded in favour of, or against, such resolution. No objection shall be raised as to the admissibility of any vote except at the shareholders meeting or adjourned shareholders meeting at which the vote objected to is or may be given or tendered and every vote not disallowed at such shareholders meeting shall be valid for all purposes. Any such objection shall be referred to the chairperson of the shareholders meeting, whose decision shall be final and conclusive.

4.6.2 If a poll is duly demanded it shall be taken in such manner as the chairperson directs save that it shall be taken forthwith, and the result of the poll shall be deemed to be the resolution of the Shareholders Meeting at which the poll was demanded. Scrutineers may be appointed by the chairperson to declare the result of the poll, and if appointed their decision, which shall be given by the chairperson of the Shareholders Meeting, shall be deemed to be the resolution of the Shareholders Meeting at which the poll is demanded. The demand for a poll shall not prevent the continuation of a Shareholders Meeting for the transaction of any business other than the question upon which the poll has been demanded. The demand for a poll may be withdrawn.

4.6.3 In the case of an equality of votes, the chairman of the meeting shall not be entitled to a second or casting vote.

4.6.4 Subject to the Act and any special terms or restrictions as to voting upon which any shares may be issued, upon a poll every shareholder present or represented by proxy shall have one vote for every share held by him. The total voting rights of the holders of all securities, other than ordinary shares and any special shares created for the purposes of Black Economic Empowerment, may never be more than 24,99% (twenty four point nine per cent) of the total voting rights of all persons entitled to vote at such a meeting. If a resolution is proposed to meet the Listings Requirements, notwithstanding that the holders of securities not listed on the JSE shall be entitled to vote thereon as a matter of law, their votes shall not be taken into account for the purposes of determining whether or not the requirements of the Listings Requirements have been attained. If the relevant Listings Requirement that relates to this clause 4.6.4 were to be removed or modified, the provision in question shall no longer apply if the Listings Requirement has been removed or shall apply as modified by the Listings Requirements.

4.6.5 The parent or guardian of a minor, the curator bonis of a shareholder and any person becoming entitled to shares in consequence of the death or insolvency of a shareholder, may vote at any shareholders’ meeting as if he were the registered holder of the shares, provided that at least 48 hours before the time of holding the meeting (or adjourned meeting, as the case may be) at which the person proposes to vote, he shall satisfy the board of the basis upon which he proposes to act, unless the board shall have previously admitted his right to vote at such meeting in respect thereof.

4.6.6 Where there are joint registered holders of any share, or several executors or administrators of a deceased shareholder in whose sole name any shares stand, anyone of such persons may vote at any meeting, either personally or by proxy, in respect of such share. If more than one of such joint holders, or executors or administrators, be present at any meeting, personally or by proxy, one of the said persons so present whose name stands first on the register in respect of such shares shall alone be entitled to vote in respect thereof.

4.6.7 For so long as the company is listed on the JSE, if any of the Listings Requirements require an ordinary resolution to be passed with a 75% (seventy five per cent) majority, the resolution shall instead be required to be passed by a special resolution.

4.7 SHAREHOLDERS’RESOLUTIONS

4.7.1 For an ordinary resolution to be adopted by the shareholders of the company, it must be supported by the holders of more than 50% of the voting rights exercised on the resolution.

4.7.2 The adoption of a special resolution is to be subject to the approval of at least 75% of the votes cast by the holders present in person, or represented by proxy, at the general meeting/annual general meeting convened to approve such resolution and must be subject to a minimum notice period of 15 business days. If the relevant Listings Requirement that relates to this clause 4.7.2 were to be removed or modified, the provision in question shall no longer apply if the Listings Requirement has been removed or shall apply as modified by the Listings Requirements.

4.7.3 The proposal of any resolution to shareholders in terms of sections 20(2) and 20(6) of the Act is prohibited in the event that such a resolution would lead to the ratification of an Act that is contrary to the Listings Requirements unless otherwise agreed with the JSE. If the relevant Listings Requirement that relates to this clause 4.7.3 were to be removed or modified, the provision in question shall no longer apply if the Listing Requirement has been removed or shall apply as modified by the Listings Requirements.

5. DIRECTORS AND OFFICERS
5.1 COMPOSITION OF THE BOARD
5.1.1 The company shall have not less than eight directors, of which at least two shall be executive directors. The shareholders of the company may from time to time by ordinary resolution, increase or decrease such minimum number of directors. The board must appoint a chief executive officer and an executive financial director. The board may from time to time appoint one or more of the directors to the office of managing director or chief executive officer or manager (provided always that the number of directors so appointed as managing director or joint managing directors and/or the holders of any other executive office including a chairperson who holds an executive office, shall at all times be less than ½ (one half) of the number of directors in office) for such period (not exceeding 5 (five) years) and at such remuneration (whether by way of salary or commission, or participation in profits or partly in one way and partly in another) and generally on such terms it may think fit, and it may be made a term of his/her appointment that he/she be paid a pension, gratuity or other benefit on his/her retirement from office.

5.1.2 If the number of directors falls below the minimum set out above, the remaining directors shall as soon as possible, and in any event not later than three months from the date that the number of directors falls below the minimum, fill the vacancies on a temporary basis or call a shareholders’ meeting for the purpose of filling the vacancies. The failure by the company to have the minimum number of directors during such three-month period does not limit or negate the authority of the board or invalidate anything done by the board or the company. After the expiry of the three-month period, the remaining directors shall only be permitted to act for the purpose of filling vacancies or calling shareholders’ meetings. If the relevant Listings Requirement that relates to this clause 5.1.2 were to be removed or modified, the provision in question shall no longer apply if the Listings Requirement has been removed or shall apply as modified by the Listings Requirements.

5.1.3 The Company shall appoint a Chief Executive Officer and Chief Financial Officer as ex officio directors of the company. These directors would not be subject to the annual retirement of directors as contemplated in clause 5.1.10 below.

5.1.4 Alternate directors may be appointed in accordance with the Act. The appointment of all directors must be subject to shareholder approval at any general meeting or annual general meeting.
